Dear Aged P's,
 How do you like this for remoteness? There's only 4 of us here to night, & real farm cooking. Next Sunday, a bus leaves Rydal Church at 11.57 arriving Windermere railway station 12.21, where we 'scarecrows' will meet you. Derek's growing a beard - I warn you. Have had sunny weekend.

Dear Dilys,
 The lakes are lovely!
 The fells are quite good as the Swiss mountains. We've had quite a bit of rain, but not too bad. Went for a row on Lake Windermere for a rest after climbing Helvellyn - my poor feet! Hope you can read this, but am writing by oil-light. Love John

Mr. A. W. HANKINSON, DISPENSING AND FAMILY CHEMIST, Grange-over-Sands.

INVALIDS and patients under medical treatment resorting to this district, will find every facility for obtaining the remedies prescribed by their professional attendants at the above establishment, where careful attention is bestowed upon the preparation of physicians' prescriptions and family recipes by the proprietor, a fully qualified and skilful dispenser. Mr. Hankinson has always in stock the necessary drugs, etc. for this purpose, together with patent and proprietary articles, perfumery, toilet and nursery requisites, and surgical and medical appliances of every description. He also supplies photographic apparatus and accessories, and for the convenience of the numerous amateur photographers who frequent the neighbourhood, a capital dark room has been arranged for the development of negatives. The developing and printing of customers' negatives are undertaken if desired, at reasonable prices. The premises have an attractive window frontage and roomy interior accommodation on the ground floor with photographic show-room above, extensive alterations having recently been made, with the object of bringing the business up-to-date. There is also a well-stocked circulating library, replete with some hundreds of works by the standard authors and most popular writers of the day, which are obtainable on very moderate terms of subscription by residents and visitors in the locality. A large and varied stock of Photographs and Photographic Albums of the vicinity and of the Lake District, by Valentine and Sons, and Frith and Sons is kept. Aerated and Mineral Water of the first quality can be obtained in Syphons and Bottles.

 Good Friday 18th Apl/30.
 Dearest Dad & Mam,
 We are landed here - it is lovely & the food is A.1.
 Hughie is eating all his portion every thing we leave!!! The only drawback is - it is piercingly cold, but a lovely dry day. I haven't been properly warm since I came.
 We have two front bedrooms on the top floor next door to each other. They had whiskey & we had port wine last night to get us warm. The beds are warm & lovely, so all is well. Sarah came with a nasty cold in the head but I think it's jingling away!
 We have the table for four in the window & they take Sarah for my mother but don't take Hughie for Dad - I wonder really who they think he is - Sarah's 'tally man' no doubt! The Hotel seems to be full, sleeping some out, but oh! it is lovely. I'm glad you are warm at home - you'd be starved outside.
 Love from us all & have a rest.

 Dear B. J. I hope to be in Carlisle Saty for a long weekend. I want to know if you could spare her 3 eggs, if so Mother will take them as we won't arrive until 10.20, as far as we know. We have had perfect weather here -
 a lovely holiday.

you will be surprised to see I am here and I intended getting a lot of letters written but I don't seem to have any more time here than I had at home. Anyway I am here for a month so I might manage it later.
 I haven't been well. Busy is fine. Love

The weather is wonderful and we are resting
to the point of exhaustion.
It is lovely tho' & we cannot imagine going home again.

We came by train
which made a pleasant change & have walked everywhere so far.

Dear Bert,
Arrived home safely at 6:15. From Lancaster to Preston, I had a comfortable seat on a tin trunk in a "corridor." From Preston had a 1st, making up for the first portion. Hope you are enjoying yourselves in the "WOODS" Oh, the "nowt" "its sickening." Give our best respects to the Gibsons & tell Miss Adelaide we were sorry we could not see her before our departure. We send our kind regards to your Majesty & my next best love to Miss Howarth.

Myrtle Bank, Grange-over-Sands

Continued to Melling this morning. Haven't the last three days been lovely? We have been out to sea this afternoon & have just got back. I hope you will like them for your collection. M.S.

This house marked is the one we are going to live in quite near the sea. It's a small place but all the rest. E. B.

Grange-over-Sands

This is a lovely place, splendid scenery & plenty of beautiful walks. We are having very good weather & enjoying it very much. Hope you have enjoyed your holiday. Edgewood, Apr. 17. B. P.

News black out on devastating explosion

One hundred years ago this week 10 people were killed by a fire at munitions factory in Lancashire. But the tragedy remained unreported for almost two years as wartime censors banned details of the White Lund explosion being made public. Luke Antipas reports

For Correspondence

Dear Sandy

Recovering beautifully.

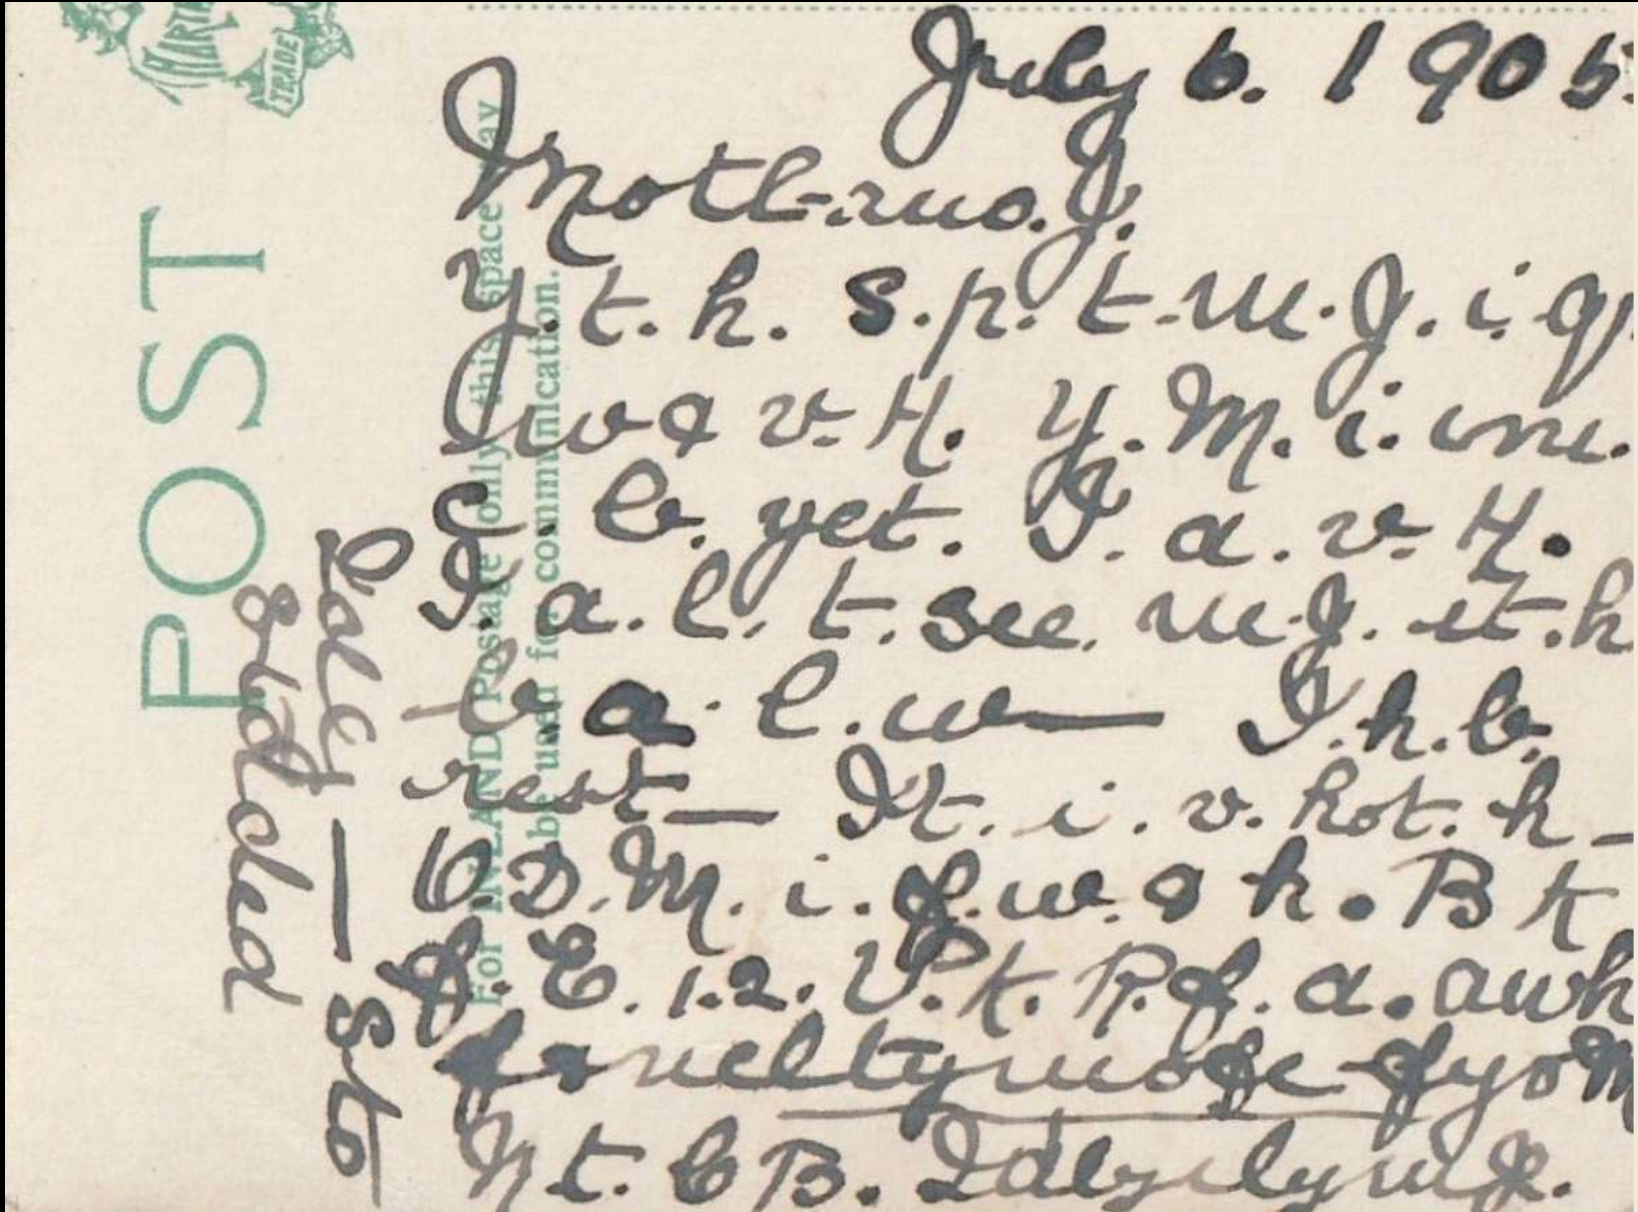

Absolute absence of clamour, in fact "change" is the word.

Il fait beau temps toujours!

May it continue. Had a day with Wordsworth, the bard, yesterday @ Grassmere. simple champion. - no war excitement in these parts.
